NEW SKETCH AT KEITH'S.

'How to Get Rid of Your Mother-in- stein's Paradise Gardens. The show is Law" had its first presentation at a big one, full of novelties. Big crowd Keith's Union Square Theatre yesterday afternoon and last night. Three people are necessary to the production. In the offering these three are Ned Monroe, as Dr. Rice; Harry Mack, as sentative audiences.

the Mother-in-Law, and Mrs. Nelle Lawrence, as Mrs. Rice.

The sketch occupies about thirty-five minutes. The problem is solved by the husband making love to his mother-in-law, naw, not because she is lovable, but because he finds that the easiest way to get rid of her. His attention to her arouses the wife's jealousy. Phat is what he husband wants. Sequence, early departure of the mother-in-law, after which husband and wife make up and offer thanks for the deliverance.

The name of the author of this new sketch is kept concealed. But the sketch pleased large houses.
